

ASKEW URBAN FORUM Breakfast Series

Join us for Breakfast and Stimulating Presentations at the:

Gainesville Area Chamber of Commerce
300 East University Avenue, Board Room

8:00 a.m. - 9:30 a.m.

- 1. Stan Smith, “DEMOGRAPHIC TRENDS IN ALACHUA COUNTY AND FLORIDA. What are the True Implications for Government and Business in this Region?”

— January 21, 2004 —

Dr. Smith is the Director of the Bureau of Business and Economic Research and Professor of Economics at the University of Florida

- 2. Sanford Berg, “SHOULD SOUTH FLORIDA BE ALLOWED TO TRANSPORT WATER FROM NORTH FLORIDA? Options for Consideration”

— March 24, 2004 —

Dr. Berg is the Director of the Public Utility Research Center and Professor of Economics at the University of Florida

- 3. Dave Denslow, “THE FLORIDA TAX-SERVICES TRADEOFF: CAN WE PAY FOR OUR FUTURE? Trends and Choices”

— May 6, 2004 —

Dr. Denslow is the Director of Policy Studies Program at the Bureau of Business and Economic Research and Professor of Economics at the University of Florida

Registration: You may register either for individual events or for the entire series. The cost of each event is $10. The cost of the entire series is $25. The registration fee includes breakfast. To register and receive instructions on payment, please go to <http://www.gainesvillechamber.com>; then go to “Chamber Calendar.” If you have any questions, please contact Lynne Holt at lynne.holt@cba.ufl.edu.